OFFICIAL COUNT CITY AND COUNTY COMPLETE TODAY

Shows the Exact Majorities of Bryan and James in Recent Election.

How the Candidates For City Offices Ran.

SCHOOL BONDS WERE BEATEN

Official count of the election returns in the general election does not change the standing of any candidates, although it developed that a majority was against the issuance of the school bonds. Few errors were found in the counting by the commissioners who finished the count in record-breaking time. Yesterday morning Col. H. J. Harber, Will H. Farley and Sheriff John W. Ogilvie began the count at 10 o'clock, and at 5:30 o'clock the count had been completed. The returns were tabulated, and this morning the sheets were signed by the commissioners and the successful candidates were issued the certificate of election.

The official count was:

COUNTRY MEMBERS OF FISCAL COURT HAVE HARD TIME

How easy it is for a member of the county assembly to offend his constituents is shown by the fact that every member of the present fiscal court who stood for re-election and had opposition in the Democratic primary was defeated Tuesday, and there will be five new faces on the board, even if the Democrats succeed in carrying every magisterial district in the county at the general election.

Magistrates C. W. Emery, J. H. Burnett and George Broadfoot, the old magistrates nominated for re-election represent the First, Third and Fourth districts which are city districts, and had no opposition. The other city district, the Second, is at present represented by J. J. Bleich, a Republican. Harry George was nominated in that district.

In the remaining four districts, which are all in the country, three of the present board, Magistrates Gholson, Knott and Brooks, will be succeeded by John D. Craig, H. C. Hartley and Baxter Kuykendall. J. R. Thompson, magistrate in the Sixth district, made the race for the Democratic nomination for sheriff.

The constables nominated are A. C. Shelton in First district; R. J. Hovekamp, Fifth; E. Huddleston, Sixth; Lynn Choise, Seventh, and J. W. Bannister, Eighth. There were no candidates in the Second, Third and Fourth districts.

Money For the Schools

State Treasurer Farley and City Treasurer Dorian are the real friends of the city schools. They came here today with $5,553.93 to ease the situation, $3,070.68 from the state and $1,882.55 of city revenue.

Last Message of President Will Urge Enactment of Measures that Would Strengthen Executive Arm

GRASS FIRES.
Grass fires still keep the fire companies on the jump, but so far the firemen have kept the city from suffering any loss by snuffing the fires in their incipient stage. Today at noon a grass fire caught the fence at the residence of Miss Dow. Husbands, 2022 Jefferson street. Last night fire alarm was given for a grass fire at Sixteenth and Madison streets. Those company No. 3 and the truck from company No. 4 answered both alarms.

GERMANY AFRAID KAISER'S MOUTH IS RUNNING AWAY

Berlin, Nov. 7.—The announcement that the Century magazine is preparing to print an interview with the Kaiser caused the greatest uneasiness and dissatisfaction. People fear an incident like the recent London Telegraph interview. It is reported the German embassy at Washington is instructed to ascertain the nature of the interview and suppress it if it is dangerous. Several newspapers suggested raising a popular subscription to buy the whole issue of the Century.

BUSINESS MEN OF TWO CITIES MEET MONDAY MORNING

Chicago papers are making a prominent feature of the Chicago business men's trip south. Their call is purely social and they are coming on a special train. They will arrive in Paducah early Monday morning and will be the guests of the Commercial club at 8:30 o'clock breakfast at the Palmer House. At 10 they will take an auto ride over the city, and at 11 a reception to the business men of Paducah and Chicago will be held at the Palmer House, and all the business men of the city are expected to attend.

The reception committee is composed of Mayor James P. Smith, Aldermen H. S. Wells and Virgil Sherrell, Councilman H. R. Lindsey, President Palmer, of the Commercial club, J. L. Friedman, J. C. Utterback, E. J. Paxton, G. C. Wallace, Sol Dreyfuss, Harry Meyers, Earl Palmer, John Keller, H. C. Overbey, W. E. Bradshaw, Jr., Henry Hughes, S. A. Fowler, J. J. Henry and Richard Rudy.

It's Jailer Clark

Patrolman James Clark took charge of the city jail this morning as soon as the election commissioners handed him his certificate of election. Mr. Clark offered his bond and it was accepted, and he took the oath of office. Jailer Wade Brown, who has made an efficient official, turned the keys of the jail over to him. Jailer Brown moved from the jailer's residence this morning and Jailer Clark began moving in this afternoon.

Patrolman George Starrett, who resigned from the police force last week, has been appointed as deputy city jailer by James Clark, the new city jailer. Mr. Starrett served on the police force about a year. George Brown, the assistant chain gang boss, will continue to serve under the street department and assist with the street cleaning.

Morse Defiant

New York, Nov. 7.—Morse is defiant despite his sentence. In an interview he declared "I'm a sacrifice to public desire see a rich man go to jail. Politicians are responsible for my conviction. I'm 52. The judge might as well have given me a life sentence."

Morse is hopeful he will secure bail under a writ of error. He is determined to fight to the end to avoid the prison.

Sprinkling Streets.

In an effort to prevent the gravel streets from being so dusty and wearing away the big sprinkling carts of the city are in service again. Ernest Bell, street inspector, started the carts out this morning, and the streets will be kept as damp as possible.

Digest of It Indicates Characteristic State Document—Tariff Bill—For Taft to Consider—Toga for Roosevelt.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The president has already completed the outline of his message to congress. The tariff question has been relegated to the new congress and the new president. Judge Taft will have the writing of the tariff message and it will be his first communication to the legislative branch of the government. He is going to work on it at Asheville during the winter and have it ready before inauguration.

With the tariff taken care of, President Roosevelt will present the case of those various reform measures he has been pressing in the past. The list will include:

Practical and effective amendment to the Sherman anti-trust act, with the view of establishing some such government supervision of the great industrial corporations as the interstate commerce commission maintains over the railroads.

Some considerable extension of the powers of the interstate commission in the matter of controlling rates, especially the power to prevent a rate or schedule of rates taking effect until after the commission shall have had an opportunity to examine and determine its prima facie reasonableness.

Liberal appropriation for the continued enforcement of the uniform railroad accounting provisions of the Hepburn act.

Passage of the government employees' liability act.

Increase of the naval establishment by the construction of two new battleships, at least, and probably a renewal of the request for four.

Provision for the establishment of forest reserves in the Appalachian region.

Inauguration of an effective control over the water powers of the country, with a view to preventing their monopolization by private interests, and to assuring that power shall be sold at reasonable rates.

Internal waterways improvement and development.

Campaign fund publicity.

It is expected, in view of the president's vigorous advocacy of the District of Columbia child labor bill last session, that in the coming message he will be especially earnest in asking that whatever can be done in the way of national child labor statutes be done without delay.

The president leans toward the idea of making some changes in the organization of the District of Columbia government.

May Be Senator Roosevelt.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 7.—Senator Roosevelt, of New York, it may be on March 4 next, immediately after the inauguration of President Taft, and the retirement of Thomas C. Platt. Mr. Roosevelt might be elected senator to succeed Platt and take his trip to Africa besides. It has been predicted here that the Sixty-second congress, beginning March 4, 1911, will see in the senate at the same time Theodore Roosevelt, J. B. Foraker from Ohio, who will succeed Charles Dick, and the late Democratic standard bearer, William J. Bryan and John K. Kern.

Three Judges

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Friends of Taft believe he has decided on three judicial appointments. It is regarded as certain that Federal Judge Luten, of Nashville, will be appointed to the supreme court; Federal District Judge Thompson, of Cincinnati, will be circuit judge, and former Judge Hollister, of Cincinnati, will take Thompson's place.

WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday; moderate temperature. Highest temperature yesterday, 67; lowest today, 50.

BANK CLEARINGS THIS WEEK LOOK LIKE OLDEN TIMES

Business First Impetus of Confidence Succeeding Election.

Real Estate Men Receive More Inquiries.

ALL LINES BRIGHTENING UP

Bank clearings.....$425,550

Now that the president for the next four years is elected, everybody has placed politics on the shelf, and has begun to talk business. Business in Paducah has felt the change, and already the clearings have begun to assume old-time figures. Politics has held the front of the stage for the last month, but even the last of this week the merchants have felt a slight increase in trade, with plenty of rosy promises for November and December.

Real estate has been quiet, but the dealers have had more questions concerning the prices of property, and some nibbles may result in deals. The real estate dealers are optimistic, although a majority of the deals are for small lots for residence purposes.

The tobacco trade has been on the low ebb, and the drought has to take most of the blame for it. The week is so dry at present that with the most careful handling it crumbles and the dealers do not find it profitable to move it. With a good rain and plenty of vapor in the atmosphere the tobacco rebonders would have a good opportunity to make up for lost time.

The retail merchants are ready for the fall trade and the display windows are crowded with the new styles. The shops are crowded with all that is new in finery and since the opening of the winter bonnets have been moving lively.

The river trade is still to the bank, although the Tennessee river boats are able to navigate. The small gasoline tug boats have made efforts to supply the small river towns, but the stage of water is too low to permit the carrying of heavy cargoes. A good rainfall would help all lines of business, as the scarcity of water has been a hardship to the manufacturers for boiler uses, as well as for the shipping of goods.

Business Resumes.

New York, Nov. 7.—Reports from all over the country continued to show the unmistakable return of business prosperity. The revival is general, the return of confidence as a result of the election of Mr. Taft affecting every trade.

The most cheering information is that circulated by the National association of Manufacturers to the effect that one-half of their 3,000 members will re-engage an aggregate of 200,000 men.

Burgess Under Arrest

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Ross Burgess, the young man wanted for the malicious cutting of Will Peoples at Kansas, was arrested and this morning he gave a bond of $2,000 for his appearance at the examining trial. Burgess and Peoples had a quarrel and Burgess cut Peoples' throat. Peoples is still in a critical condition, but it is thought that he may recover.

End of their Romance

Denver, Nov. 7.—It is reported on authority of an intimate friend that Mrs. Ruth Leavitt, Bryan's daughter, is preparing to seek divorce from Homer Leavitt. Desertion and non-support probably will be the allegations. He wants the custody of the children.

DEMOCRATS WILL REORGANIZE ON THIRD SATURDAY

Under the party law of the Democratic party in Kentucky the county executive committees will be reorganized the third Saturday in November and calls have been issued for mass meetings of the members of that party at the different voting precincts on that date to elect committees to serve four years. Under the provisions of the law the committees are elected will meet the following Saturday after their election to choose a county chairman and secretary.

The Greatest Period of Railroad Extension Work in This Country Promised by New York Cen. Man

Orders For Supplies Aggregating Millions Follow Election of Taft—Mills Opening All Over Country.

Clarinda, Iowa, Nov. 7.—"The greatest period of railroad extension work this country has ever had is upon us," said a prominent president of a railroad line, who is visiting here, his old home. "The country is entering upon a period of even greater prosperity than we have yet known."

"The morning after election I sent, myself, more than 100 telegrams, re-issuing orders for railroad supplies and equipment for the New York Central lines alone, aggregating in cost $31,000,000. I placed these orders some time ago and made them contingent on the election of Mr. Taft, because our company believes that should the election go against Taft the money and commercial markets of the country would be too seriously disturbed to warrant us entering upon anything so extensive."

"I can say positively that other railroads of this country have either already, or will within a few days, release orders like these of ours that will aggregate $240,000,000 for equipment and for material that will go into railroad building, extensions and improvements of rolling stock. I can tell you also that enough orders have been placed with the gigantic steel industries of this country to keep them working for a whole year at their maximum if they should not receive another order."

"All this means just one thing, namely, that the greatest period of railroad extension work we have yet had is upon us. In every department of commerce and business the country is sure to progress over and beyond the point it had attained in the fall of 1907, when temporary lack of confidence and the approach of the national campaign conspired to check business, and we are now entering upon a period of even greater prosperity and business activity than we have ever known before."

PRISON EMPLOYEES CONTRIBUTE TO CAMPAIGN FUND

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7. (Special.)—Ben Marshall, an anti-Beckham Democrat here, claims Brown and McCutcheon, prison commissioners, raised $5,000 for the campaign from employees of the prisons, and gave $2,500 to Ben Johnson for the present campaign and paid off a note due at a Frankfort bank for the money expended during a former campaign. Brown and McCutcheon say they did not assess the prison employees, that the contributions were voluntary. They declare the transactions were perfectly legitimate.

Pierce Goes to Texas

St. Louis, Nov. 7.—Clay Pierce arrived here this morning in his private car "Zamora," en route to Austin to face the charges of false swearing. Judge Priest, his personal attorney, accompanied him. Pierce declined to discuss the case. Priest and Johnson, another lawyer, consulted and it is probable Pierce and Johnson will start over the Iron Mountain route tonight in the "Zamora" for Austin. They don't take threats to arrest Pierce on the border seriously.

Mystery in Death

Lee Marshall, the man found shot to death in a coal car near Fulton on Thursday, is well known all over west Kentucky, having attained some notoriety as a detective at Murray, Fulton and several other towns in west Kentucky and Tennessee, making a specialty of working up violations of the local option laws in force at the small towns. Later he was arrested and fined at Martin, Tenn., for bootlegging whisky himself. The officers have so far been unable to unravel the mystery of his death.

LABOR PARTY MAY BE ORGANIZED TO CARRY OUT PLANS

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The formation of an independent labor party will be the probable outcome of the defeat of Bryan. Labor leaders here en route to Denver, are seriously considering it. It is pointed out as the only way labor can hope to accomplish its ends. It is proposed to make the organization on broad lines and work for the industrial progress of both labor and capital.

HEALTH OFFICER WILL EXAMINE ALL CHILDREN GOING TO WHITTIER SCHOOL

The number of cases of diphtheria in the neighborhood of Rowlandtown is alarming. During the last three days four new cases of diphtheria have developed. The children developing new cases of diphtheria are all pupils at the Whittier school.

Health Officer Dr. H. P. Sights and a physician from each room in the Whittier building will make an examination of the throats of all the pupils as they enter the building Monday morning. The health officer is determined to find out the reason for the disease spreading so rapidly. Dr. Sights gives two reasons for the spreading of the disease, first that the parents of some child who has been ill with a light form of diphtheria do not call a physician, but all the child to go to school, and second, that the disease is only a few days old when the child is sent to school.

Commissioners Meet

Monday night the board of police and fire commissioners will hold their regular meeting, the first in two months. Two places on the police force will be open owing to the resignation of Patrolmen Starrett and James. A vacancy in the Central fire station will be filled. Firemen are working extra.

NASHVILLE RIDERS.
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 7. (Special.)—Night riders appeared within 13 miles of Nashville and warned J. and O. Brown not to open their lumber mill, and tried to set fire to the mill and lumber. Two arrests were made.

900 workmen dismissed as a result of business depression during the past year. These are to be engaged here December 1 next. The association's official newspaper estimates that if all the 13,000 manufacturers throughout the country who employ more than 100 men each were affected in the same way as their members, 650,000 men would be added to the army of the unemployed before the first of the year.

Railroad and shipping interests are being affected by the general revival in harmony with other trades. The steel industry, the inflexible barometer of the business conditions of the country, is preparing for a record in 1909. All the coke ovens in the Pittsburgh district are being fired up for the winter.

Local political interest the next two years will center in the board of aldermen, unless "a man on horseback" appears in the Democratic field in that time. Two aspirants for the mayoralty nomination are said to be numbered among the winning candidates for aldermen, President Ed Hannan and Alderman-elect Lucien Durrett. President Hannan's ambition has been known for a long time. He will be re-elected president of the upper board without doubt. Some of Alderman-elect Ernest Lackey's friends have been suggesting him for the honor, but Mr. Lackey himself put the quietus on the boom. He has been an important and active member of the lower board for two years and his name is repeatedly mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for mayor. He only smiles when that idea is suggested. "It's too remote even to deny it," is Mr. Lackey's way of expressing his feelings on that subject.

President Lindsey, of the lower board, will retire January 1, and a Democratic successor will be elected. Councilman Al Foreman is tipped for the presidency. He was re-elected to the board last Tuesday. President Lindsey has made an excellent presiding officer, and those who have seen Councilman Foreman with the gavel in his hand say he looks the part and conducts the proceedings with dignity and tact.

The New General Council.

In the upper board it is a toss up between Aldermen Durrett and J. E. Potter, which will take the short term, filling out the unexpired year of former Alderman Chambliss's term. Alderman Wells was appointed by Mayor Smith to the vacancy until a successor could be elected.

In the lower board Councilman-elect Lally will take Councilman Cornellison's place. The latter was appointed to the vacancy created by the retirement of David Flournoy.

The make-up of the general council will be:

Aldermen—Ed Hannan, L. E. Durrett, J. E. Potter, P. H. Stewart, Harry Hank, George Oehlischlaeger, Virgil Sherrell and Ernest Lackey.
Councilmen—George Hannin, P. F. Lally, Al Foreman, P. McCarthy, T. E. Ford, Frank Mayer, C. C. Duval, R. J. Wilson, Al Young and Fred Kreutzer.

"SOMEBODY LIED" DIRGE PLAYED TO ELECTION HOPES

With Deal's brass band in the lead and followed by many of the ship carpenters, Jack Sanders wheeled George Grossheart in a wheelbarrow out Broadway from First street to Ninth street this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. This payment of a freak election bet was viewed by many hundreds of people, as the brass band announced that the parade had started. Professor Deal arranged "Somebody Lied" as a funeral dirge and the band played this all during the march. Jack Sanders, who bet that Bryan would be elected and lost to Grossheart, had a wheelbarrow to push decorated in gaudy colors, as the employees at the marine ways spent spare moments in arranging a proper vehicle. This afternoon at 4:10 o'clock the third wheelbarrow will take place, when C. W. Lewis will wheel J. R. Vickery from the Illinois Central railroad shops to First street and Broadway to pay their freak election bet.

Miners Are Lost

Benton, Ill., Nov. 7.—The bodies of Patrick Daly and George Reed, two of the buried miners in the Rend mines, are recovered. They are beyond recognition and appeared unrecognizable and then were buried. Hope is abandoned and Holmes, the other whole mine is a blaze, work almost impossible.

FEED BILL

SAVED CITY BY STREET INSPECTOR ERNEST BELL.

Planted Corn on City Property and Has 600 Bushels Stored Away for Winter.

Six hundred bushels of corn are stored in the crib of the city street department for use this winter to feed the city teams. The corn was raised on city property beyond the old dogwood factory, and the corn will save the department a bill of $260 at the present price, although during the winter months it is not uncommon for corn to jump to 90 cents a bushel, and then it would represent a saving of $540.

In the spring Street Inspector Ernest Bell made use of the city property by planting it in corn, and used the prisoners to cultivate it. With the city teams it was hauled to the crib, and it cost the city 11 cents a bushel. The 600 bushels will be sufficient to carry the street department teams until next March. The saving of a big feed bill will be an item of expense eliminated worth while as all of the city departments are on limited funds.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS. PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Mild, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram." "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" will be the attraction at the Kentucky on Monday night, November 9. The now famous farce comedy is more than a mere framework for laughs, having as it does a most brilliant and entertaining plot. The doubling wife and truthful husband, who tells but one little falsehood, and other characters and incidents so true to life are well portrayed by James B. Delcher's associate company of players selected with the utmost of care for their respective roles. As is well known the situations in the play are extremely ludicrous and follow one another in such startling rapidity that the audience is thankful that the curtain drops between each act, for no other reason than that a breathing spell between the continual laughs is afforded thereby.

Florence Gear—Her Personality and Her Art.

Florence Gear, Jules Murry's little star in "Marrying Mary," is one of those rare theatrical finds that one meets with but occasionally on the road. Taught the rudiments of her art in the strictest of schools, broadened technically and made more valuable by three years' practice in one of the best metropolitan stock companies where she played everything from Juliet to Black-eyed Susan.

Miss Gear three years ago entered Murry's service with the best training for star work. One of the best of Brooklyn, Miss

After an agony of a week's abstinence, I began to think of how I could get my cherished smoke without disobeying my mother. There is usually a shooting gallery near the stage door and young actors often happened in. I never could shoot, but I discovered a fact in natural science and at once took to betting the cigars with anyone at hand that he could not hit the glass ball on the back thread. OUR SIDE OF IT.

It has become recognized all over the country that at least SOME unfair accident claims are brought against railroads and street car companies.

There have been magazine and newspaper articles full of interesting information as to how unscrupulous lawyers and even organized gangs of criminals go to work to "milk" the corporations. There is perjured testimony and sometimes attempts to bribe men on the jury.

It is often SAID that jurymen are ready to show prejudice against a corporation. If this is true, it is a sad reflection upon the justice of men that they should be moved by a woman's tears or a man's tale of woe to place a undeserved burden on a blameless party. Our courts are not for that. But never mind—just help us to run down and expose the dishonest lawyer—the criminal "ambulance chaser" who ATTEMPTS to corrupt our juries.

Help us to put in jail the bearer of FALSE witness—the man or woman who will sell their testimony. Fake damage claims give the impression that travel is not safe.

YOUR SIDE OF IT.

Make this company pay every cent's worth of damages for any accident in the future for which it is to blame.

But realize that it is hard for this company to distinguish between real and "fake" claims. The latter are sometimes very deceptive, so if the public will help to prevent FRAUDULENT suits against us, it will be easier for us to recognize and pay any fair claims.

And make it easy to place the blame for a possible accident upon the company by doing what you can to make the people who ride careful and blameless themselves.

Meredith and Rossetti were to take up house together, but it occurred to the former to go and see what the house was like first. He arrived at noon. Rossetti was not up. But on the table was his breakfast—six eggs and as many slices of bacon. The repast had been waiting some time. The eggs were draining

NOVEMBER.

The ruddy blaze of the sunset
Flares wide through the wooded gloom,
And the goldenrod flaunts proudly
Her glimmering yellow plume.

The tall indubekia opens
Her disk like a golden sun,
Where the Indian turnip blazons
A path to the meadowrup.

The dogwoods are gowned in crimson;
The maples are splashed with red,
And the ivy trails her scarlet vine
From a blasted bough overhead.

Then ho! for the partridge, calling
To his mate in the cornfield sere
And ho! for the wild duck homing
To her haunt by the limpid mere.

And ho! for Jack Frost, the wizard,
Who touches the autumn world
And changes its somber raiment
To garments of gleaming gold!

FRIDAY—The Woman's Auxiliary of Grace church parish will have its Missionary Tea for November at the parish house at 2 p. m. Mrs. Sallie Morrow is the hostess. The program is:
The Pan-American Conference—Miss Compton.
Current Events—Mrs. Ha. Corbett.

Mrs. Black Honor Guest.
Miss Carrie Rike entertained with a beautifully appointed luncheon on Thursday at her home on Kentucky avenue, in honor of Mrs. James H. Black, of Terre Haute, Ind., the guest of Mrs. Milton G. Cope. Mrs. Black, who was a popular Paducah girl, returned to her home today. She was the recipient of much social attention while here.

Paducah-Georgia Wedding to Be a Notable Event.
The marriage of Mr. Melvin Wallerstein to Miss Gertrude Dolores Wachtel, of Macon, Ga., will take place November 17 at Temple Beth Israel, Macon. It will be a most brilliant social event and Mr. Wallerstein left today for Macon to attend a number of parties in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Jacob Wallerstein, his mother, accompanied him, but she will visit in Atlanta for a week, where she will be joined by Mr. Jacob Wallerstein, Mr. Herbert Wallerstein and Mr. Sol Dreyfuss, who will leave here on the 15th to attend the wedding, and the party, together with relatives and friends from Atlanta, will go on to Macon.

Guild for the Home of Friendless.
A beautiful charity of which all Paducah is proud is the noble work of the Home of the Friendless and any effort to aid it meets always with a ready response. The churches have always willingly helped when called upon, but there has been no systematic method of work for the Home among them. It is proposed now that a Guild be organized composed of representatives from all the churches in the city. Each church will have its own branch and head and all will be under one general head. All that is asked is that each church be responsible for two new articles for the Home a year, one in the spring and one in the autumn, either clothing or table linen, towels or bedding, whatever is most needed at the Home. This will not fall heavily upon any one and yet will assure the Home some regular aid. The pastors of the churches have been requested to appoint the heads from their different churches, and all are asked to meet with Miss Minnie Hatcliffe, who has inaugurated this commendable move, on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the parish house of Grace Episcopal church to perfect the organization.

"Mistletoe Bough" to Be a Brilliant Spectacular Event.
"Under the Mistletoe Bough," the musical play to be presented at the Kentucky theater on Thursday evening, November 12, under the auspices of the Woman's club of this city, promises to be a most delightful musical and brilliant spectacular event.

The four acts of the play, which are based on the old-time English ballad "Under the Mistletoe Bough," will introduce 15 bright, catchy stunts taken from such light operas and musical comedies as "Madam Butterfly," "The Great White Way," "Flower of the Ranch," "Merry Widow," "Milk and Honey," "District Leader," "Mary's Lamb," "Yankee Doodle" and others. They will follow each other in such rapid succession that the effect will be that of a continuous moving panorama and beautiful scenery. Some idea of the brilliancy of the effect of these may be gleaned from the scene when "The Glow-Worm" is sung by Miss Dreyfuss. Here with stage in total darkness, save the momentary flashes of the glow worm, a bevy of singing and dancing girls, are seen dancing here and there amid the flashes, will out rival in their gorgeous groupings many professional choruses.

The performance will open with the wedding of "Love and Glee." During the wedding festivities that follow the stage will be a most brilliant scene.

In the second act the scene is laid in the old tower where, in accordance with the beautiful legend, the lovely Gleeva disappears, never to be found in life again. Interesting choruses work, the Japs, French maids and others will make this scene well worth while.

From this until the mystery of the lost bride is solved in the fourth act the specialties and spectacular stunts follow each other in close succession.

The children's scene in the third act, with something more than 200 in action on the stage at one time, is short, crisp and thoroughly interesting.

While the children take a novel and attractive part in the play, all the specialties, musical numbers, working choruses and the play itself are handled by grown-ups, who will include a number of Paducah's favorites in dramatic and musical talent.

Gleeva, the bride—Miss Ethel Brooks.
Lord Lovel, bridegroom—Edwin J. Paxton.
Butler—Evert Thompson.
Groomsmen—Fred Wade, Douglas Coby, John Brooks, Vincent Salvo, Salem Cope.

The soloists and some of the songs rendered by them from the light operas and musical comedies are:
Soloists: Mrs. James Welle, Mrs. John Brooks, Mrs. Arthur Godfrey, of Boston; Misses Ethel Brooks, Mayme Dreyfuss, Anne Bradshaw, Nella Hatfield.

Bride—Miss Ethel Brooks will sing "Absent."
"Toast to the Moon," from "The Mayor of Tokio," will be sung by Miss Anne Bradshaw.

"The Glow-Worm" and "Life is a

"The Fairest Flower of All," A. Wilson's new song, and "Swinging"—Mrs. James Welle.

"Beautiful Isle of Bon-Bon," from the "Gingerbread Man"—Miss Nella Hatfield.
"O, You Pretty Monks," "When the Moon Plays Peeka-Boo," and "Sing Clings Smilgen"—Mrs. John Brooks.

"Mama de la Vie"—Mrs. Godfrey.
Duet from "The Hot Mill," "You Never Can Tell About a Woman"—Mrs. Godfrey and Miss Helen Hills.

"Wouldn't You Like to Have Me for a Sweetheart," from the "Yankee Tourist"—Mrs. Brooks and Miss Dreyfuss.

Mrs. W. C. Gray will sing "Somewhere," by Taylor, in the wedding scene.

The "Male Dancing Stunt" will be done by the groomsmen: Messrs. Douglas Bagby, Fred Wade, Salem Cope, Vincent Salvo, John Brooks.

In the Young Ladies' Dance will be: Mrs. Paul Province, Mrs. Arthur Godfrey, of Boston; Mrs. John Brooks, Misses Anne Bradshaw, Philippa Hughes, Ethel Brooks, Katharine Sherman, of Michigan; Mayme Dreyfuss, Nella Coleman, Rena Bernhardt, Willie Hills, Nella Hatfield, Elizabeth Williamson, Anne Williamson, Lillian Hobson, Rosalind Hobson, Blanche Hills, Helen Hills, Olga List, Jane Stevenson, Helen Powell, Miss McCandless, Robbie Lovin, Marjorie Lovin, Elsie Hodge.

The Misses' Dance will include: Messrs. Martha Cope, Sarah Corbett, Mildred Gardner, Grace Hills, Mary Lightfoot, Marguerite Carnegie, Alice D. Foster, Ethel O'Brien, Helio V. O'Brien, Almede Dreyfuss, Lucile Well, Elizabeth Boswell, Ellen Boswell, Lucile Harth, Nell Grosan, Gladys Colburn, Ruth Hinkle, Tillie Bauer, Laura Towns, Vera Johnston, Kate Rose, Cora Pryke, Kate Morgan, Henrietta Kames, Sue Cabell.

The children who will take part are: Caroline Mather, Marion Wright, Elizabeth Graham, LaVerne Purcell, Elsie Voris, Lillian Humphrey, Elizabeth Shirley, Pauline Grassham, Orlie Fuller, Dorothy Redhead, Dorothy Brainerd, Maudie Guedry, Miralini Welle, Lydia Welle, Adine Corbett, Elizabeth Hills, Muriel Riker, Lena Uterback, Helen Pulliam, Dorothy Tully, Virginia Ross, Elizabeth Rhodes, Mary Frances Eaton, Hattie Castleman, Willie Rook, Gladys Albritton, Mollie Gardner, Jane Adair Wright, Elizabeth Reddick, Elsie Rose, Mary Lillian Moore, Lottie Robinson, Agnes Dodd, Audrey Rosenhal, Nellie Clay, Caroline Crosby, Gertrude Denker, Mabel Keller, Elfreda Wilkes, Mary Duke Potter, Ellen Hatfield, Blanche Lindsey, Louise McClure, Mary Bolten, Irene Hart, Lucile Henry, Louisa Billings, Anna Billings, Pauline Elliott, Ruth Hubert, Hazel McMan, Fannie Rickett, Lillie Tensley, Elsie Rose, Blanche Overstreet.

Resolution of thanks to Mrs. Johns of Metropolis, chairman of the entertainment committee, at the dedication of the George Rogers Clark statue, for her gracious courtesy and for the hospitality extended, were passed by the chapter, and Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells, Mrs. M. B. Nash and Miss Emily Morrow were appointed a committee to extend these thanks.

Mrs. Luke Russell gave a happy description of the day at Fort Massac, bringing out much that was of especial interest to those of the chapter who did not attend.

Miss Nanale Caldwell and Miss Elizabeth Caldwell were voted in as members of the chapter and Mrs. Flns Lack, Mrs. T. E. Holland and Mrs. Paul Province were received as members.

Mrs. Clarence Sheffill rendered some attractive music and delightful refreshments were served. There was a large number of the members present.

Opening Dance by the Elks Friday Night.
The first of a series of dances to be given during the winter by the Paducah lodge of Elks took place Friday night at the club rooms on north Fifth street. More than 400 guests were present and the affair was one of the most enjoyable of the season. Dancing began at 9 o'clock and the German, led by Mr. Wallace Well was started at 10. At 11 o'clock a supper was served in the dining rooms on the first floor. The menu was: Oyster cocktail, olives, mixed pickles, oyster wafers, tongue a la Elk, Chicago ham a la Clements, princess olives, pickles, lettuce, coffee, wafers, milk. The music was furnished by a stringed orchestra and between the dances punch was served in the lounging room on the second floor. The Elks and their friends present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Dinkle, Pat Lally, Fred Moore, M. G. Griffin, Ed Hannan, C. E. Renfro, Harry Fisher, Dick Clements, William Lydon, Henry Arenz, Will Gilbert, Sam Godman, W. L. Berry; Mesdames Jeff Briggs, Sam Abell, Harry Atkins, G. E. Thompson, Rex Cornelson, Ed Rivers, J. H. Williams, Wallace Well, George Mueller, Roy Prather, Hankin Kirkland, Ike Friedman, Roy Calley, P. F. Dally, D. B. Sutton, Dick Ashbrook, C. S. Johnson, M. J. Friedman, Fred Flannagan, Sam Godman, C. O. Brown, Oscar Grief, Casey Gunn, Guy Jones, Julian Dismukes, Sid Bamberger, Lee Moss, Owensboro; Bert Mann, Henderson; Monte Atkins, A. P. Wolf, G. B. Head, J. W. Atkins, Dyeusburg; Maurlee W. Meyer, New Orleans; A. H. Kelsker, Louisville; Misses Fannie Landrum, Griffin, Grogan, Sloan, Frances Clark, Olga List, Ethel Morrow, Hill, Holland, Halpin, Lawson, Cluehnatt, Ohio; Viola Flinn, Irene Ullmann, Felsenthal, Jackson, Tenn.; Mae Owen, Corinne Winstead, Lella Johnson, Alma Kopf, Elsie Hodge, Lydon.

There will be another dance Thanksgiving Eve.

A BALD-HEADED WOMAN

Shorn of Her Crown of Beauty Losses in Love and Marriage.

Hair is certainly most necessary to woman. Who could love and marry a bald-headed woman? What charms could one array to offset such a disfigurement?

A woman's goal is usually love and marriage. Her crowning glory is her hair. The loss of her hair mars her beauty, happiness and success. Yet, right here in Paducah there are thousands of women who are neglecting or injuring their hair to such an extent that it is only a matter of time when it will be utterly ruined.

Many women destroy the beauty of their hair through thoughtlessness or ignorance of certain facts. They use curling irons over-heated, or to excess, which destroys the natural oil of the hair, causing it to split, break and come out. They do not shampoo their hair often enough, or too often. They use soaps or preparations which contain ingredients positively harmful to the scalp and hair.

As a result of such treatment, dandruff is created, the hair loosens, loses color, falls out, and baldness commences unless proper and prompt precautions are taken in time. Then again, microbes and certain diseases bring about unhealthy scalp and hair conditions.

Almost anyone may rid themselves of dandruff and diseased scalp and hair if they will but use the right remedy. We have that remedy, and we will positively guarantee that it will either cure dandruff and baldness or it will not cost the user anything.

That's a pretty broad statement, but we will back it and prove it with our own money. Recall "93" Hair Tonic is the remedy that will grow hair and overcome all scalp and hair troubles. It will grow hair even on bald heads, unless all life in the hair roots has been extinguished, the follicles closed, and the scalp is glazed and shiny. It gets its name from the fact that it grew hair in 93 out of 100 cases, where it received a thoroughly hard, impartial and practical test.

We want you to try Recall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. You surely cannot lose anything by doing so, while you have everything to gain. You had better think this over, and then come in and see us about this offer. You will be well repaid for your visit to our store. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00.—W. H. McPherson, Paducah, Ky.

Daily Thought.
So long as one does not despair, so long as one does not look upon life bitterly, things work out fairly well
in the end.—George Moore.

The fire department has answered
several alarms occasioned by grass fires getting beyond control. Children's bonfires should be prohibited
or carefully guarded in dry seasons
like the present.

In such an emergency as is presented by the visit of the Chicago
business men to Paducah Monday,
an organization like the Commercial club is appreciated. Without such a central organization of business men, co-operation in behalf of the city on short notice would be almost impossible.

WATTERSON DIES HARD.
No one takes it any harder than does Col. Waterson. Two columns of editorial maulings he squanders from his splendid mind. He sees only two little rays of hope.
First, he believes there is yet a possibility of redemption, because Harmon was elected in Ohio and Marshall in Indiana. Perhaps, he thought of Hughes in New York, also, and Hadley in Missouri, but he did not say so.
Then he acknowledges:

Yet each mishap has its compensation. In the personality of the elected president the people may be said to be in possession of an anchor to windward. Judge Taft owes his election to his own character. Of this there can be no manner of doubt.

The constitution of the United States has not been abolished
yet, nor institutional freedom,
nor wise and upright administration, and these are still worth fighting for.

In justice to him it is only fair
to assume that he had a few phrases and expressions left over from the campaign; for he declares:

In the national government
the oligarchy of privilege finds itself stronger entrenched than ever before. Its fortress is unassailable. It can never be driven out short of its own dissolution, or some dire catastrophe,
bringing ruin in its train.
He reviles his fellow citizens as unfit for the obligations of citizenship:

The result of Tuesday's election shows conclusively that the great majority of the people of the controlling Section of the Union are well content with things as they are; that it is better to endure the conceded shortcoming of the party in power than embark upon an unknown sea of continuous agitation; that Bryan meant this whisper Taft meant rest; in short that a Dollar, though tainted, in hand, is worth a bush full of patriotic abstractions.

The average voter of better education and intelligence takes no thought of the hereafter, and is even more indifferent to the heretofore. He is completely engrossed by the present. He would not exchange the current crop

reports, with a rising price-list,
for all the books that were ever written upon political economy.
Then he adds gratuitously:
The Electorate has declared
for a High Protective Tariff; it has declared for an invincible Armament, embracing a Navy unsurpassed upon the Seas, along with a corresponding Military Establishment upon a fixed war-footing on the land.

There isn't a word of truth in that or a foundation in fact for the assertion.

Turning from the male populace as clients he finds that the church, the press, literature and commerce are utterly hypocritical and corrupt and this is the way he says it:
We need take no account here
of the agencies of organization and corruption, though both may be seen clearly enough. They show so plainly in the nomination and election of the successful candidate as to make it apparent that whole segments of the people are no longer appalled
by anything, however immoral
and wrong, that does not touch their pockets. Even those that preach the simple life in the Magazines of the East are deaf
to the drum-taps of conscience.
Nay, he that shrieks "Righteousness" from the highest places is found often practicing fraud in the lowest; so that the language of the Religion of Literature and Journalism and Commerce, is Cant.

To one, who remembers things
from one year to another, and recalls how Waterson abused Bryan for everything that was base and ignoble, a political mountebank, a money seeker, notoriously loving public character, his eulogium of the great Commoner is a revelation, not of Bryan's
character, but of Waterson's:
The result shows that we oversized the material in the hearts and minds of the people. Nor did Ignatius of Loyola sweep through a world of incarnate evil bearing the Cross of Jesus to triumph with greater force of inspiration and truth than did the heroic son of Nebraska traverse a land galloping with curiosity, but too busy over its work and play to consider any danger to the immortal soul of its Constitutional fabric.

CEMENTING THE TIES.
The trip about to be undertaken
into the southland by representatives of the Chicago Association of Commerce has been planned along lines which should result in much mutual benefit to the commercial interests of this city and the commercial interests of the territory traversed," says the Record-Herald.

"Anything that encourages closer social relations between the two regions of the country—the south with its growing importance as a great producing region and the middle west with its great 'central market'—will make for the material prosperity of both. It is in recognition of this fact that the Association of Commerce
again extends the hand of good fellowship to our neighbors. There is no doubt of the welcome that will be extended to the Chicago emissaries throughout their journey, and it will be reciprocated whenever return calls are made.

"Added importance attaches to the present trip by reason of the recent progress in the movement which will culminate in the construction of a deep waterway from the lakes to the gulf. The waterway will unite the sections commercially, and it needs
only the social feature inaugurated by our far-seeing merchants and business men to insure the best results for all concerned. Furthermore, the forthcoming trip marks the beginning of a general revival of trade throughout the whole country. With a period of political tranquility assured for a long time, there should be an extra warmth in the greetings extended and the responses thereto."

That Illinois will perform her part in the construction of a Lakes-to-the-Gulf deep waterway is indicated by bulated returns on the proposition submitted to the people at Tuesday's election to bond the state for $20,- 000,000 to construct a channel from Lockport, Ill., to Utica, Ill., on the Illinois river. The vote in Cook county (Chicago) was almost five to one in favor of the bond issue, and heavy majorities were rolled up in its favor in the river counties.

The charge that law and order speeches delivered by Republicans in night rider infested counties increased the Democratic vote in those counties,
at least corroborates the prediction that the night rider vote would all be Democratic this fall regardless of how the law and order league lined up.

Another Diphtheria Case.
Another case of diphtheria was discovered in the Whittier school yesterday afternoon, and today the building is being fumigated thoroughly.
The pupil was in the fourth grade.
Previously all of the cases have been discovered in the first grade. Dr. H.
P. Slight, city health officer, was notified, and he directed the work of fumigation. The attendance at the school has been curtailed by the number of cases of diphtheria in the school. Session in the first grade were only resumed yesterday.

The funeral of Mr. J. B. Jones, of the late Paducah, who died at home yesterday, was held at the home of his wife, Mrs. Ida B. Chiles, at 10
military hospital.

BULGARIA ASKS
RUSSIA'S HELP

To Secure Modification of Porte's Proposals.

Renewed That Austrian Cabinet May Resign as Outcome of Recent Racial Conflicts.

WILLIAM'S VISIT TO JOSEPH

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—The agent of Bulgaria in this city has been instructed to make representation to Russia that the terms proposed by Turkey for the settlement of difficulties growing out of Bulgarian declaration of independence are entirely unacceptable and to request Russia to unite with the other powers in the use of influence at Constantinople toward securing a modification of the attitude of the porte in the premises.

Cabinet May Resign.

Vienna, Nov. 7.—It is reported that the resignation of the Austrian cabinet is imminent as the outcome of dissension among the German and Czech ministers arising from the recent racial conflicts in Prague and other Bohemian towns.

William Visits Joseph.

Vienna, Nov. 7.—Emperor William, of Germany, arrived at Castle Schoenbrunn, a suburb of Vienna,
on a brief visit to Emperor Francis Joseph. The coming of the emperor is regarded as a demonstration of German good will toward Austria's attitude on the near-eastern question, and the public turned out in large numbers to cheer his majesty.
There was a private dinner party at Schoenbrunn castle, at which those present included the two emperors and their suites and foreign ambassadors. No toasts were offered. Following the dinner Emperor William had a long talk with Baron Von Aehrenthal, Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, and later with Emperor Francis Joseph. Emperor
William left later for Donaueschin-gen, in Baden, for a hunt.

Kaiser Admonished.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—The German conservative party, representing the most loyal section of the German people,
has issued an official declaration concerning the interview given to an official representative Englishman by Emperor William and published recently in the London Telegraph. The declaration expresses serious concern
"that not infrequently the attentions of his majesty bring our foreign politics into a difficult situation," adding:

"In order that the emperor's reputation may be preserved from criticism and discussion and the German empire and the people from complications and harm, we express a reverential wish that greater reserve be displayed in the future in making such utterances."
The declaration is formally signed by Baron Von Nanteuffel, president of the party, and ten of its principal leaders.

Maximilian Harden, editor of the Die Zukunft, speaking on the political situation to a large crowd, called

Union Rescue Mission.

The Union Rescue Mission, 431
Trimbale street, report for October, 1908: Sermons preached, 15, including three funerals; visited and ministered in 12 homes, assisted 10 families with provisions, giving away a quantity of bread and meat, furnished by the bakers and butchers, and a great many hats for girls and women, furnished by Miss Zula Cobb. Gathered up and distributed 600 useful articles of clothing among the needy, and gave employment for 12 women and permanent homes for 2 children.
Gave away 26 meals and 10 lodgings.
We are always on the quest for the unfortunate, giving relief where we can. But we are greatly hindered for lack of means. We are thankful for what we get, while we need a more liberal support, that more may be done, and urge the public to give us of their means. Money, clothing, provisions, fuel or anything you can give, that will help the home for the poor, may prove adequate to their needs. Phone 1073 and 1076. R.

HENRY SINGERY, 17 YEARS POLICEMAN.

Longest Record of Tallest Patrolman in Paducah—Brave Officer.

Patrolman Henry Singery completed seventeen years of almost constant service this week, and began his eighteenth found with a record that would be an honor to any policeman.
In addition to being the tallest patrolman in point of service, Patrolman Singery is known as the tallest cop
in Kentucky; for he stands 6 feet 3 1/4 inches high in his stocking feet.
He went on the force under the second administration of Mayor D. A.
Yelver in 1891, and has served under the remaining administrations despite the shifting sands of politics.
During all his service he has the tall guardian of the peace been "on the carpet" for only one violation of the rules.
After six years of service Patrolman Singery was made night captain of the police, a duty similar to that of police sergeant, and he served a year. Since then he has been on the beat. In his service he has made some of the most important arrests

in the criminal history of the city.
After a battle with Will Leach, a colored housebreaker, he arrested and took an active part in the arrest of a couple of safe blowers when the Wan-ner saloon was broken into. Numerous other criminals have been brought to justice by the brave officer's work.
Despite that he has been on the beats longer than any present patrolman. Patrolman Singery is a young man yet, as he has not passed his fortieth year, and when it comes to a foot race the dearest criminal will have to wake up to keep in the lead.
Notwithstanding his arduous Patrolman Singery has not been shot or accidentally injured in his service for the city, and still he has as many arrests
to his credit as any officer.
The oldest man in the police department is Captain Frank Harlan, but he has discarded the billy and helmet,
and for several years has been captain of the department.

Gov. A. E. WILLSON SIGNS
FIRST DEATH WARRANT.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Governor
Willson fixed December 4 as the date for the hanging of Robert Hooker, the negro who shot and killed Newton Veal, in Fayette county, a year ago. This is the first death warrant which has been signed by the governor since he has been in office and he did not enjoy condemning a man to death. The law says that where the date for the execution of the court's sentence has passed, on account of an appeal, or for any other reason, the governor shall fix a new date for the execution. Although Governor Willson has been in office for nearly a year this is the first time that the duty has been imposed upon him.
Hooker killed Newton Veal, in front of the latter's home, one afternoon, as a result of a quarrel which the men had the day before when Hooker was discharged from Veal's employment. The negro cherishing revenge, drove up to Veal's place and called to Veal to come to the gate.
When the white man responded and went to the gate, the negro took a shotgun from the bottom of the wagon and emptied the contents into Veal's body.

An Obscure Mist.

"You don't seem to have as much call for hammocks as you used to,"
said the regular boarder.
"No," answered Farmer Cornbor-
se. "I guess times has been too hard for silk stockings this summer."

FRED ZIMMERMAN GETS BENEFIT OF THE DOUBT.

Because the evidence conflicted as to whether Fred Zimmerman, a painter, tried to kill his wife and then himself, or just simply tried to cut his own throat, Judge Cross gave the defendant the benefit of the doubt and rendered a judgment against Zimmerman for $10 and costs this morning.

Zimmerman's wife to whom he had been married only four months, testified they had quarreled over the husband not working, and that he grabbed her around the neck and drew his knife declaring he was going to kill her and then himself. Zimmerman said he only intended killing himself, but drew his wife in him that the night she was executed. The police were summoned and he was arrested. Both parties testified the husband was not drunk. The Zimmermans live at 218 Clark street.

Other cases were: Breach of peace, Ed Scott, $5 and recognized in the sum of $200 to keep the peace twelve months; Rob Brown, $5. Obtaining money by false pretenses, Arthur Tucker, continued to November 9.

A POST MORTEM
Comment of Some Who Ran and Some Who Almost Ran.

In the light of events it is interesting to recall the claims circulated before it happened. The following was all pre-election talk:
At Republican national headquarters: "Taft will get 325 electoral votes; Bryan 168."
At Democratic national headquarters: "Bryan will get 332 votes; Taft 150."

William Howard Taft—"Vote the Republican ticket and preserve prosperity, protection to American industries, business integrity and the rights of labor."

William Jennings Bryan—"Our fight is won, and we await the verdict with confidence. Surely the hour has come for a return of the government to the hands of the people. Let the people rule!"

Chairman Hitchcock—"I believe this contest is won. If conditions are normal throughout the country, I expect to see my forecast (325 electoral votes for Taft) verified. My forecast may be reduced, but I rather expect to see it increased."

Chairman Mack—"All that is needed to win is to poll our full vote and see that it is honestly counted. New York will give Bryan 40,000. Ohio and Indiana are surely Democratic."

Notice W. O. W.
All members of Manchester Grove are notified there will be no meeting Monday night owing to the absence of Mrs. A. L. Iseman, who has been called to attend a meeting of W. O. W. C. in Cairo. Will meet, however, Friday night, November 13, at K. C. hall.

TOBACCO BURNS

SPARKS FROM PASSING TRAIN IGNITES GRASS.

Tobacco Owned by Jeffrey and Davis and Valued at $1,000, Is Lost.

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 7.—Sparks from a passing train a short distance north of the city Thursday afternoon caused a fire in the dry grass which proved disastrous before it completed its work.

The grass on the right of way first caught and then it spread rapidly into the V. Lebrece field and burned everything in its wake. Mr. Lebrece's large tobacco barn, caught fire and was completely destroyed. In the barn was about $1,000 worth of tobacco which belonged to Emmett Jeffrey and Tom Davis. The barn was 60x40 feet and worth several hundred dollars. There was no insurance and the loss will be keenly felt by these citizens and it is understood that they intend to hold the railroad responsible for the loss and file a claim for damages.

The fire did not stop after burning the barn but continued south until the city cemetery was reached. The flames went through the west end of the grave yard to the south fence which was burned down and also the steps on the same side. Will Hamlet, sexton, fought desperately from 1 o'clock until 5 o'clock before he could conquer the fire demon. The damage to the cemetery property will be heavy also.

MRS. ASTOR'S FIRM RULE

Dominated New York an Newport Thirty Years.

Society Leader's Door Was Always
Open to Charm or Wit—Favored Photographers and Lights.

HELPED SOCIAL CLIMBERS

The late Mrs. William Astor, who for thirty years ruled New York society, had a most wholesome fear of photographers. For fear some photographer might take a snapshot of her she did not venture out of her home for several years without a small parasol, which she used like a fan to protect herself from observation. She manifested for several years before her death a disinclination to be seen in a full light by the public, and during the two years before her death she did not attend the opera, although before that time she had been seen at the opera box No. 7—which she shared with her son had always attracted more attention than any other in the theater.

It was always Mrs. Astor who gave the signal as the proper time to leave the opera house. This time, it might be added, bore no relation to the stage to which the opera had advanced, but was selected because it happened to suit the matron. She never left in an intermission. She always sat in her box chatting with friends during the intermission preceding her departure. As soon as the lights were down and the curtain up Mrs. Astor retired.

She had for some years past a net arranged on a wire frame. As soon as she came from her box into the light of the foyer she put this veil over her face. So far did this carry her objection to what Mrs. Astor considered excessive light that she compelled Mrs. Connelley, after he had installed a new lighting system, to disconnect her box from the general current. It was an inconvenient operation and Caroline Astor, then Mrs. William Astor, demanded that it be done, and she had the right, as every stockholder has, to do as she wished with her box.

Gave Her First Big Ball Nearly Thirty Years Ago.

It is more than thirty years since Mrs. Caroline Astor, then Mrs. William Astor, gave the first of the large entertainments that have come to be known popularly of late years as "Mrs. Astor's Ball." From the day of that first big ball Mrs. Astor had been the acknowledged social leader and arbiter of New York and Newport society, and never did a ruler hold the reins of government so trustily and with so little evident effort as she. If Mrs. Astor invited you you were "in," and if she didn't you were "out."

Mrs. Astor's maiden name was Caroline Webster Schermerhorn, and she was born on September 22, 1830. Her parents were Abraham Schermerhorn, a well known New York lawyer, and Helen White Schermerhorn. The family is descended from Jacob Schermerhorn, one of the first settlers of the New Netherlands, who came to New York on the ship Van Rensselaerwyck in 1656.

Caroline Schermerhorn became Mrs. Astor in 1853, when she was married to William Astor, a grandson of the first John Jacob Astor. Her husband, who was also born in 1830, died in 1892, leaving besides his widow, four children. One of these, Mrs. James Roosevelt Roosevelt, who was Helen Astor, the second born, died the following year, 1893. Mrs. James J. Van Allen, who was the first child born to Mrs. Astor, died in 1881.

Just what the qualities were that gave Mrs. Astor her social pre-eminence are hard to define. By right of birth and fortune, although she was not supposed to be especially wealthy as fortunes go in these days.

INDIGESTION GOES IN FIVE MINUTES

If You Had Some Diapepsin
Now, Stomach Misery Will Go

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion and stomach trouble is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Diapepsin.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach. People with weak stomachs should eat Diapepsin after meals, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, gas on stomach or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or vomiting, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after eating one Triangule of Diapepsin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

her social position was, of course, hardly assured. But those who had heard of her power to make or unmake the climber at will expected to meet a woman who perhaps was dictatorial, or at least given to self-assurance and "push." Mrs. Astor had none of these qualities.

Many Social Climbers Sought Her Offices.

She was methodical and simple. When she breakfasted with her secretary, Miss Simrock, there was none of the famous monogram Astor plate on the table, but instead a set of plain old-fashioned white china, with its fat little cream pitcher that had seen many years of service. A matron less sure of herself would have sent that china "below stairs." Mrs. Astor could afford to be simple. Also that breakfast hour, 8 o'clock, was another instance of her regularity. Even on the morning after one of the big dances she gave each year the breakfast also began at 8 o'clock. Her day followed with like regularity. At 9:30 she had always finished her favorite morning paper, and unlike most women, the editorial page was the most interesting to her.

Then followed systematically her time for meeting her assembled servants to give them directions for the day. Before she began the real work of the forenoon—her mail—she spent an hour with her grandchildren. That was her best hour, she used to say.

There were stories in that big bundle of mail that came to her daily and which she and Miss Simrock went through as thoroughly as the matter demanded, stories that might be comedies to a reader but which were tragedies to ladder-climbing writers. "Open the golden door," was the theme of many of these letters, and it lay with the woman in the simple morning gown to unlock the door of will. Fortunately for the climber, Mrs. Astor believed in the open door and had no sympathy with the ultra-exclusive matrons of New York, who did not have a street downtown named after an ancestor.

If Mrs. Astor thought one worthy of social recognition, regardless of the fact that he might have arrived in New York the month before, she invited him to her hall. After that first invitation the climber felt that he—usually he and she—had "arrived." The presence of writers, artists and singers at Mrs. Astor's large parties made the affair snappy somewhat of continental salons.

Mrs. Astor was a friend and champion of Harry Lehr, formerly of Baltimore. It was she more than any other person, who helped him to attain a New York and Newport social position, and until her retirement from society Lehr was much with her and led several cotillions at her balls.

News-Scimitar Involved

Memphis, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Julia Raine, in a suit filed in chancery late yesterday afternoon by Henry Craft as solicitor, asks that a receiver be appointed for the Memphis News-Scimitar company. Mrs. Raine states that she is the wife of Gilbert D. Raine, editor-in-chief and manager of the company and its business, and that she is now living separately and apart from him because of his desertion of her and her home, and as she is about to institute suit for divorce from him, does not have her name joined with hers as a complainant in the suit. The allegation is made that the defendant corporation is indebted to the extent of $300,000, and that it has exhausted its credit and is now on the verge of bankruptcy, owing even its employees large sums of money for services rendered.

REACTIONARIES

DEBATES ABOUT FUTURE CON-TROL OF SENATE.

Joe Cannon's Lieutenants in House Lose Out and Changes Will Be Made.

New York, Nov. 7.—Speaker Cannon and his friends and supporters in the house were in secret conference in this city making plans which include the re-election of Cannon as speaker of the Sixty-first congress.

Speaker Cannon and his friends insist that his re-election is necessary, owing, first, to the narrow Republican margin in control of the house, and next to the fact that many of the strongest members of the majority have been defeated and the election of a large number of "low tariff" Republicans from the west and middle west.

It has been generally understood in Washington that Speaker Cannon would surrender the speakership at the end of the next session, and that Representative Hepburn of Iowa would be chosen to succeed him. The unexpected defeat of Hepburn, as well as the defeat of Representatives Overstreet and Landis of Indiana, eliminates three of the most active men in the speakership list.

The retirement of Mr. Sherman leaves a vacancy in the committee on rules in the house, and it was virtually agreed that this place should go to Representative Loudenlager of New York.

While plans are being made to control the house and prevent radical changes in the tariff in the lower branch of congress, the reactionaries are greatly worried by conditions in the senate. Senator Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee, which will have charge of the tariff bill, no longer controls the senate in the absolute manner in which he has ruled in the past.

Fulton of Oregon is to be succeeded by Chamberlain, a Democrat. Governor Cummins of Iowa will fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Allison. He is committed openly to lower tariff rates. Governor Crawford of South Dakota, another radical Republican, will succeed Senator Kittredge, who has always voted an Aldrich directed. Hansbrough of North Dakota will not return, and Hemenway of Indiana can not be re-elected, and Foraker of Ohio, one of his chief lieutenants, will be retired.

New Oliver No. 5

Sets Swiftest Pace Ever
Known in Typewriter Selling

The wonderful new model Oliver No. 5, has taken the market by storm.

Its reception by the public has exceeded in enthusiasm anything we had dared to anticipate.

Employers and stenographers alike have welcomed it as the one machine that answers the multiplied needs of the hour. The cry is for Speed! Speed! Speed!—and the Oliver responds.

The demand for Durability is filled by the sturdy, steel-clad Oliver.

To a call for a writing machine that will do many things and do each of them equally well, the Oliver answers with its unexampled versatility.

Its visible writing saves the strain on eye and brain.

Its legibility lends beauty to its work. The letters that bear the Oliver imprint are the letters that seem to speak.

Oliver No. 5 fairly bristles with new and exclusive time-and-money-saving features. We have space to mention only a few of the more important ones.

—Its "appearing indicator" shows exact printing point.

—Its "measure shifting" mechanism saves operative effort.

—Its "line ruling" device is fine for tabulated work.

—Double Release doubles convenience.

—Non-Vibrating Base insures stability. Yet with all of these added improvements, we have still further simplified the Oliver—by fusing brains with metal.

Oliver No. 5 is a dream come true—the dream of Thomas Oliver crystallized into this wonderful mechanism of shining steel that embodies every possible requirement of a perfect writing machine.

Ask the nearest Oliver agent for a Free Demonstration of Oliver No. 5, or send for The Oliver Book—yours for a postal.

"Well," said the gossip in the ingenuously other evening, "speaking of long lives, my dear old grandmother died at the age of 192! That will take some beating, I think."
He passed and looked around with a smile of satisfaction.
"That's nothing," said the melancholy individual in the corner. "I had a grandfather who died at 222."
A silence fell as the first speaker glared around.
"Bosh! Do you mean to say that a relation of yours died at 222? Why, it's a sheer impossibility!" he snapped.
"Not at all," was the grim reply. "He died at 222 Woodward avenue." Detroit News-Tribune.

JEWISH HISTORY

BEING GENERALLY STUDIED IN CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLES.

Miss Jeannette Goldbert, Field Secretary, Tells of the Movement.

At the conclusion of the regular service last night at Temple Israel, Miss Jeannette Goldbert, field secretary of the Jewish Chautauqua, gave a short annual report of the progress of the cause of Jewish education. The work has spread rapidly in all parts of the country and this year the Chautauqua will extend the work in the west more than ever. Her report of the south was that the work has a firm hold, and that the Jewish circles, organized for the study of the history of the Jew, were enthusiastic, and next year a class will be organized in a prominent southern university. Virginia will be entered for the first time since the work of educating the Jew by the Chautauqua's plan was begun.

JONAH

IS GOLD CUP OVER WHICH THERE WAS RACE SCANDAL.

E. E. Smathers Puts $10,000 Haulie Away in Garret Out of Sight.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 7.—Stored away where mice and rats may scramble over it in a New York garret is the $5,000 gold cup contested for by C. K. G. Billings' Lou Dillon and E. E. Smathers' Major Delmar, over the Memphis course, in the memorable event which afterward produced a clash in courts between the millionaires on grounds of Lou Dillon having been doped the day

Major Delmar won the deciding "leg" which gave Smathers the permanent possession. Smathers, who has been fishing and hunting in this section for several days, gave out this information himself. He said he regarded the cup as a Jonah. He paid out, he said, $40,000 to prove that the cup was not won by a conspiracy, and after the New York jury rendered the verdict in his favor he said that he took no more interest in it, and ordered it thrown "among the old junk" in the garret.

Smathers once offered the cup back to the Memphis Trotting association for a mile race, the winner of a mile dash to be given permanent possession. This was refused.

HONEST BUSINESS TO BE PROTECTED

Rigid Enforcement of Law Against Fraud.

President-Elect William H. Taft Talks to His Neighbors.

FIGHT TO BE MADE ON BRYAN

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Speaking to the Cincinnati Commercial club, of which he has been a member for fifteen years, William Howard Taft brought every member of the club to his feet in his address sounding the keynote of prosperity for the country for the next four years.

"Every business man who is obeying the law may go ahead with all the energy in his possession, every enterprise which is within the statutes may proceed without fear of interference from the administration, when acting legally but all interests within the jurisdiction of the federal government may expect a rigid enforcement of the laws against dishonest methods," was the keynote of what Mr. Taft said.

Off for Hot Springs.

President-elect Taft, Mrs. Taft and Private Secretary Casper left last night for Hot Springs, Va., where Taft will remain for rest and recreation until Thanksgiving.

The day was the most quiet for the president-elect of any since the election. He had a conference with Myron T. Herrick, but stated afterward that no matters of significance were discussed.

Taft sent a telegram to Governor Magoon at Havana, expressing condolences at the death of President Palma.

While no official announcement has been made, it is known upon reliable authority that Fred W. Carpenter, who has been Taft's secretary for many years, will be his secretary to the president, succeeding in that position William Loeb, Jr., who, it is also stated, may have the position of secretary of the navy in Taft's cabinet, if he so desires. Carpenter was with Taft in the Philippines, and has been his secretary in the war department.

Fight Against Bryan.
Chicago, Nov. 7.—Local Democrats

are looking to Pennsylvania to take the lead in the repudiation of Bryan as the further leader of the party. It is to take the shape in the election of Col. James Guffey, of that state, as national committeeman to the vacancy caused by the death of James Kerr, Bryan's friend.

Bryan's public statement that, while beaten for president, he will still work as a private citizen for his country's good was interpreted by them as meaning that he would still remain a factor in the party.
